Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurFifty years ago, Beatrice Trent was on her way home from babysitting when she was crushed to death by a careening car. Ignominiously pancaked between a fender and a streetlamp, Beas been fixed to the same, sorry streetlamp ever sincemiserable, undead, and unable to move on. Unbelievably, Bea gets a second chance when a strung-out young girl smashes a car into her lamppost. With one touch, Bea wakes up in a hospital bed to people calling her Lindsay. Beas breaking dozens of ghostly rules by staying, but until she can find a way out shes determined to fit into her new life. Too bad living as a charlatan comes with a few caveatsa worried family, a quirky best friend, andgulpPeyton, Lindsays attentive and very attractive boyfriend. Unraveling the mysteries of modern culture are hard enough, but theres a wraith lurking in the shadows. Hes determined to hunt Bea down and erase her trespassing spirit from existence. Desperate for peace, Bea enlists Peytons reluctant help in solving the mystery of her murder more than half a century ago. As answers creep to the surface, Bea starts to wonder whether she truly wants to abandon her new life and the people inside it. Or if she even has a choice.
